Toronto, Ontario – March 2014 – Keck Seng Group announced the appointment of David Quinn as general manager of the International Plaza Hotel + Conference Centre, the company's largest hotel and conference centre development in North America. Quinn will oversee the operations of the 433-room hotel and 60,000 square feet of conference space. He will report directly to Keck Seng Group Vice President of NA, Sherry Lee.

"International Plaza Hotel + Conference Centre creates a significant hotel presence for the Keck Seng Group in Canada and David's proven track record in the Ottawa and Toronto market paves the way for our success," said Lee. "We are delighted to welcome David back to International Plaza and look forward to providing a broad range of hospitality experiences for business and leisure travelers alike," she added.

Quinn rejoins the International Plaza Hotel with 18 years of Canadian hospitality experience, most recently with Radisson Hotel Ottawa, Parliament Hill where he was General Manager. Prior to that, he served as the Director of Operations for the International Plaza Hotel + Conference Centre Toronto Airport. Quinn has also held management positions with InterContinental Hotels Group.

Strategically located just minutes east of the Pearson International Airport, the International Plaza Hotel + Conference Centre is a 433-room hotel and a 60,000 square-foot conference center, which features an onsite full-service spa, gift shop and salon. Also located inside the hotel are five food and beverage outlets including a full-service Starbucks, an indoor pool with two giant slides and hot tub. Future plans call for the renovation of the guestrooms and meeting/conference space. The Hotel is a member of the Preferred Hotel Group.
