

Holographic Effects

CREATE ILLUSION, GRAB YOUR AUDIENCE'S ATTENTION & MAKE AN IMPACT

INTRODUCTION

While actual holograms are still a thing of science fiction and movie CGI, you can still create the "illusion" of a hologram live on your event stage to wow your audiences and grab their highly in demand attention.

MAIN FEATURES & BENEFITS

- Holographic effects can be used to add content seamlessly overtop of a dynamic entertainment section or opening act of your show
- Create a dynamic and memorable CEO or Keynote presentation that will be sure to grab your audience's attention and get your message across
- Bring presenters from all over the country together on one stage virtually with holographic effects, all while they are still in their home city.
- Enable your presenters to create fun presentation moments by interacting with their own holographic self

Schedule a holographic effect demonstration by contacting your Account Executive, or give us a call at 1.800.868.6886 to discuss!

WORKS FOR

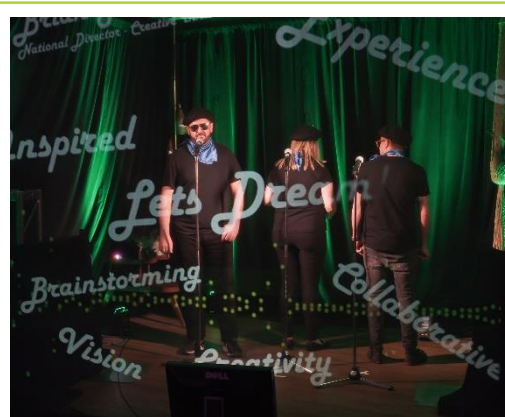

Clients looking for the newest and coolest event tech are well suited for the use of holographic effects. Technology companies or companies looking to showcase their technology forward mindset are also a great fit for this exciting event tech.

A SOLUTION THAT WORKS

Holographic effects are VERY dependent on the room environment. Lighting, layout and audience perspective play a huge role in the success of the overall effect and delivering a solution that fits your presentation environment is key. Talk to us early in your planning to ensure a maximal holographic effect experience!

TAKE ACTION

To summarize, holographic effects create optical reality, add depth to images, augment content and create dynamic demonstrations, launches and events that leave lasting impressions.

Innovation dedicated to your brand.
